What is Robertson Rewards?

Robertson Rewards (RR) is a loyalty program exclusive to Robertson Electric customers.

How It Works

By purchasing your products at any Robertson Electric Wholesale (REW) branch, your points will automatically accumulate. You will receive 1 point for every $1 spent with participating RR vendors and products. Every month you will receive an e-statement reporting your total points earned.

First Register

1. Visit www.robertsonrewards.ca
2. Hover over login, click on My Account/Order
3. Under Register click on "Create An Account"
4. Enter your e-mail address, password, first name, last name and your customer account number
5. Select your home branch
6. Click "Register"

You will receive an e-mail stating that your account has been registered and awaiting approval from your RR administrator. When your account has been approved you're ready to shop.

*Person creating an account and redeeming rewards must be the principle of the account or MUST be authorized by the principle.

Then Start Redeeming

1. Visit www.robertsonrewards.ca to view the catalogue and start redeeming your points
2. Select login, My Account/Order
3. Enter your customer account number and password
4. Your points balance will appear as soon as you login
5. Begin shopping
6. Your rewards will be sent to the branch specified by you upon registration
7. A representative from your local branch will call to arrange for a convenient time to personally present you with your rewards

*Program rules are posted on the website.

Accounts may be suspended to ensure adherence to internal company policies. Contact your local branch for details. *Participating manufacturers only. *For charitable donations, contact your local branch, or check the Donations category in the Rewards Catalogue.
